In light in- ac- cessi- ble hid from our eyes,
Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might;
Thine angels a- dore Thee, all veiling their sight;

Most blessed, most glorious, the An- cient of Days,
Thy justice like mountains high soar- ing a- bove
All praise we would render; O help us to see

Al- mighty, vic- torious, Thy great name we praise.
Thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.
'Tis only the splendor of light hid- eth Thee!
